

John Reed

Law Offices of J. Eric Reed, October 1996-Present

Since 1996 in Practice in American Indian Law, Tribal Law, International Indigenous Rights, Corporate/Business, and Criminal Trial, Criminal Appellate Law and Environmental Law. Represented the Cheyenne River Sioux Tribe as a tribal attorney and Special Assistant US Attorney/Tribal Prosecutor. Since entering private practice I have focused on trial law and litigation in State, Federal, Tribal and Military Courts. Special Consultant to the Texas Rangers and Hunt County Sheriff in the Investigation of the killing of a sacred white buffalo calf Lightning Medicine Cloud and mother in Hunt Co., Texas. Advise Corporations, NGOs and Non-Profits on international indigenous rights and legal issues. Lecturer Univ. Texas Dallas on Native Issues. Southern Methodist University Commission on Indigenous Studies. Also representing companies and non-profits as Independent General Counsel on Corporate, Sustainable Business Practices, Employment and Environmental law issues both locally and internationally. Independent Legal Consultant on Baby Veronica, Dollar General Case, Tribal Sovereignty and No DAPL cases Journal for Indian Country Today. Enrolled Member Choctaw Nation of Oklahoma.