

Calling All Authors

The Texas Supreme Court Historical Society is looking for articles to publish in its fall issue of the Journal of the Texas Supreme Court Historical Society. The fall issue will have a special focus on Native American Legal History in Texas, including a profile of Texas' first Native American federal judge. The Society has asked specifically for articles from this group, so please consider submitting your work if you have not already done so.

If you are not currently working on a piece of your own but still wish to contribute, the Native American Law Section is working on a short piece on the history behind the Section, and we appreciate any volunteers to assist with that endeavor as well.

The deadline for article submissions is October 1, 2021. We ask that you submit your articles directly to Mr. John Browning at jbrowning@spencerfane.com with a courtesy copy to ltatum@tatum-law.com.

We want to know if you have made a submission and ask that you send a copy of your submission our way as well. We will maintain articles for publication in our newsletter as well as for the Section archives if you will permit us the honor.
